TERMS OF REFERENCE (TORS)

Digitalization/Automation of NDRMF Accreditation and Project Proposal Submission Process

Background

National Disaster Risk Management Fund (NDRMF) is a non-profit organization established under section 42 of the Companies Act, 2017. The NDRMF is a Government-owned entity that is providing grants for projects. These projects are contributing to Pakistan's enhancement in resilience to disaster, climatic and other natural hazards to strengthen the government's ability in making Pakistan a disaster-resilient country.

To enhance transparency in the accreditation process, the NDRMF has embarked on a digitalization and automation initiative. By transitioning the accreditation process to a digital platform, NDRMF aims to streamline procedures, increase efficiency, and ensure a more accessible and transparent process for all stakeholders involved. Through digitalization, stakeholders can now track the progress of accreditation applications in real-time, access relevant documents and information, and participate in the process more effectively. This shift not only modernizes the accreditation process but also aligns with NDRMF's commitment to transparency and accountability in disaster risk management and climate change adaptation.

Scope of Work

As part of this initiative, NDRMF seeks the services of a skilled web developer, preferably with expertise in the Open Stack/Source framework, to design and develop a digital platform for the accreditation process. The selected web developer will be responsible for the following tasks:

1. Conduct a comprehensive analysis of the current accreditation and project proposal submission process to identify requirements for digitalization.
2. Document the current As-Is Process and suggest/design the future To-Be Process for Accreditation and project proposal submission.
3. Designing and developing a user-friendly web application using any open source framework to facilitate the accreditation and project proposal submission process.
4. Implementing features for online accreditation application submission, document management, real-time application status tracking.
5. Online project proposal submission with two options i.e. (i) concept note submission (ii) Full project proposal submission.
6. The application should be flexible, allowing the admin to tailor the questionnaire according to specific needs.
7. After client submission, application admins should be able to review/evaluate the relevant sections of the Performa by the given criteria.
8. Customizing the platform to align with NDRMF's specific needs and requirements.
9. Perform User Acceptance Testing involving pertinent stakeholders of the application.
10. Integrating necessary security measures to safeguard sensitive data and ensure compliance with relevant regulations.
11. Providing user training and technical support to NDRMF staff for the effective utilization of the digital platform.
12. Provide detailed documentation for the developed web application, including front-end & back-end source code.
13. Provide detailed End User Manuals that encompass all necessary information, instructions, and guidance to assist users in effectively utilizing the application.
